INDEX TO VOLUME 32

Page numbers indicate the month of issue as follows: September, 1-64; October, 65-128; November, 129-192; December, 193-256; January, 257-320; February, 321-384; March, 385-448; April, 449-512; May, 513-576.

Achtenhagen, Olga, on "Co-operative Planning of the Language Arts Program," 148
"Activity Program at Como Park," by Samuel H. Popper, 497
Administrators: responsible for teacher morale, 291; should assume full responsibility for selection of new staff members, 301
Adolescents, junior high schools attempt to meet needs of, 97
"Ah How My Cat Benjamin," explication of Pauline M. Leet poem, 55
Air Force overseas dependent school program, 268
"Alternate-Day School," by R. Lynn Kalmbach, 495
American Cancer Society, educational efforts of, 525 ff.
Annie Get Your Gun, study guide, 187
"Antisocial Behavior: Whose Fault?" by Joseph Resnick, 103
"Approach to Poetry Writing," by Leo Lieberman, 355
Arbuckle, Dugald S., on "A Merit Salary Schedule," 395
"Are Eton and Rugby Doomed by Socialism?" by Joel B. Montague, Jr., 333
"Are Special Classes for Slow Learners Worth While?" by Ann Reid, 553
Armed Forces education program, 269
Army dependent schools program, 267
Arnstein, George E., on "Students Vote on Student Dress," 387
Art, modern: criticism of, 361; defended as component of school curriculums, 67
Art teachers, should plan assignments carefully, 398
Athletics: bad features of interschool sports, 484; grading system for athletes, 88
"Atypical Attitudes in Typical Schools," by Otto F. Huettner and John J. Hosmanek, 181
Audio-visual equipment, scheduling of films and projectors in a large school, 19
"Audio-Visual News," 61, 125, 191, 254, 319, 382, 447, 511, 568
"Automobiles and Pupil Adjustment," by Selby Sharp, 83

Barbe, Walter B., on "Measuring Reading Comprehension," 343
Barkdoll, O. R., on "Teach Math in the Laboratory," 77
"Barrage of Slings and Arrows," by Frederick S. Kiley, 284
Baughman, M. Dale, on "Bonds of Understanding in Public Relations," 101
"Bedtime Story," poem, by Jacob C. Solovay, 154
"Beginning Teacher and the Supervisor," by Gail N. Chapman, 163
Behavior: educational camps for atypical children, 181; functions of a student court, 105; homorthic grouping suggested for pupils who lack serious purpose, 133; reasons for antisocial behavior in classroom, 103; traffic-control squads improve order in school corridors, 422; see also Juvenile delinquency
Bell, Charles G., explication of his poem, "Termites," 250
Belmock, Jay: on "Why Teachers Fear Merit Rating," 17; rebuttal to article, 339
Binational centers program, described, 270
"Block-Time or Core Practices in Minnesota Secondary Schools," by Nelson L. Bossing and John F. Kaufman, 532
Blumberg, Philip S., on "Traditional Subjects," 293
Boger, Jack, on "Re-emphasis on Quality in Education," 195
"Bonds of Understanding in Public Relations," by M. Dale Baughman, 101
Book Reviews, 47, 113, 183, 245, 308, 371, 435, 500, 559
Bossing, Nelson L. (coauthor), on "Block-Time or Core Practices in Minnesota Secondary Schools," 532
"Boy Who Doesn't Belong," by Melvin H. Robb, 337
Bradley, Eleanor, on "Guidance and Teaching of Twins," 364
Bridges, Edwin Maxwell, on "How to Make High Grades," 541
Briggs, Robert O., on "Remedial Reading and the Social Studies Teacher," 433
Brodie, Thomas: on "Critics of Education Don't Shoot Straight," 243; on "Using the I.Q. Intelligently," 283
Bryan, Roy C., on "The High-School Diploma Is Still Being Kicked Around," 341
Buell, Clayton E.: on "Functions of the Junior High," 97; on "Rugged Groupism," editorial, 353
Burt, Allan G., on "What Is the Use of Poetry?" 357
Business teachers, tell how they feel about teaching savings and investments, 287

Cahill, Walter T., on "Writing for Real," 304
Camps, educational, for students with atypical attitudes, 181
"Can You Legally Compel Pupils to Pledge Allegiance?" by Samuel A. Pleasants, 367
"Cancer Education in the Classroom," by Chester S. Williams, 525
Capeling, Howard E., on "Stock Talk for Teachers," 54
"Case for the Ballplayer," by Everett V. Traylor, 88
Chapman, Gail N., on "The Beginning Teacher and the Supervisor," 163
"Circle Stretchers Create New Incentives," by S. T. Scott, 466
Citizenship training, should be primary goal of education, 144
Clark, Richard H., on "Is There a Conflict Between Discipline and Democracy?" 7
Clark, Robert Wayne, on "A High-School Principal Looks at Juvenile Delinquency," 89
Class organization, via special assignments, 356
Class size, need not remain inflexible, 460
Classroom discipline, how to achieve, 411
Clay, Derwood, on "Reading in College," 169

Clearing House, the: advice to prospective article writers, 531; readers give their opinions of, 157
Clichés, ridiculed, 332
Clothing, Buffalo students launch "dress right" program, 387
Coard, Robert L., on "Ish, Icky, and Cool Cat," 214
Colleges: face challenge of articulation with high schools, 167; should have required reading programs for all students, 169
"Community Responsibility for Teacher Recruitment," by Nicholas Econopouly, 13
Como Park Junior High School, pioneers in student interest activity program, 497
Comparative education, see Foreign education
Concessions, operation of refreshment stand involves more than making money for student council, 557
Conformity, hard to preserve individuality today, 232
Conventions for teachers, evaluated, 427
Cook, Denton L., on "High School and College: Some Problems in Articulation," 167
"Co-operative Planning of the Language Arts Program," by Olga Achtenhagen, 148
Core curriculum, status of, in Minnesota secondary schools, 532
Cornish, Jane E., ed. of "Findings," 64, 173, 242, 320
Corridor supervision, through student traffic control squad, 422
Counseling, see Guidance
Creative teachers, essential for gifted children, 161
Creativity, involves new relationships for existing materials, 455
"Critics of Education Don't Shoot Straight," by Thomas Brodie, 243
Crossley, John B., on "Mr. Superintendent, I Want a Position as," 140
Cupp, Marjorie, on "Shall We Junk the Home Room?" 457
Curriculum evaluation, through follow-up study of high-school graduates, 480
"Custodian, the," by John H. Treanor, 465

Davis, Hazel Black, on "High-School Students Can Write: Give Them a Chance," 177
"Defense of the Less Gifted," by Francis A. Kleinhenz, 80
De Francesco, I. L. (coauthor), on "Modern Art and the Modern School," 67
"Development of Individuality Poses Problems in a Mass World," by Mary Elizabeth Fowler, 232
de Zafra, Carlos, Jr.: writes "A Letter to My Pupils," 6; on "Some Pros and Cons of CCTV," 152
"Diagnostic Instruction in Remedial Reading Classes," by Allan M. Pitkanen, 487
Dickinson, Emily, explication of her poem, "There's a Certain Slant of Light," 314
Diemer, June, on "The Ivory Podium," 144
Diplomas, one type for all students in school is best plan, 341
"Discipline," by Joe Przychodzin, 411
Discipline: beginning teacher must establish control of class, 306; ways of achieving, 7; see also Behavior
Downes, Mildred Gignoux, on "The Unreader," 202
Dramatics: contretemps in school productions, 284; high-school seniors stage Mister Roberts successfully, 155
Dress for teachers, proprieties of, 241
"Dress Right" program, established by Buffalo high-school students, 387
Durham, Virginia, on "A Semantics Approach to Teaching High-School English," 273

Econopouly, Nicholas, on "Community Responsibility for Teacher Recruitment," 13
"Edgar Beaver Looks at Sunday School," by J. R. Shannon, 10
Editorials, 353, 531
Education: how U.S. schools and colleges can meet challenge of Sputnik, 407; implications of Sputnik, 476; often becomes tool of public pressure, 243; projected to 1987, 277; public schools v. Sunday schools, 10; quality and content most important factors in what to teach, 195; superior today than heretofore, 40; traditional subjects do not necessarily promote intellectualism, 293; see also Foreign education
"Education as a Profession," by John F. Ohles, 108
"Education for the Free Mind," by Samuel A. Pleasants, 472
"Education Toward What?" by Paul W. Schmidtchen, 235
Eisman, Philip, on "Maugham in the Classroom," 25
"'Eleven-Plus' Battle in Education in England," by Joel B. Montague, Jr., 259
England: effect of socialism on British private secondary schools, 333; "Eleven-Plus" battle in education, 259
English teaching: advantages of uniform lessons for entire department at opening of term, 404; literary unit on Maugham's Moon and Sixpence, 25; lowering of grammatical standards is inevitable, 135; reviews of TV productions are worthwhile assignments, 216; students in advanced composition write for radio and newspapers, 304; theme assignment encourages pupils to discuss their personal problems, 538; unit on slang can prove profitable, 214; use of semantics in ninth-grade class, 273; use of split-group technique in teaching literature to nonreaders, 279; see also Language arts; Reading; Literature; Writing
Ervin, Max T., on "I Believe in Music," 244
Eton College, can it continue to be a social class school? 333
"Europe's Schools," by Anthony Scarangello, 323
"Evaluating the Curriculum," by Albert H. Krueger and Gregory Langan, 480
"Events and Opinion," 31, 111, 157, 237, 299, 369, 407, 485
Exceptional children, special program needed for, 80

Faculty meeting, caricatured, 165
Fathers: do not pamper sons as mothers do, 399; would benefit from closer contacts with schools, 402
Filene, William, Jr., on "Sputniks Spotlight U.S. Education," 470
Films, for use in improving reading rate, 349
Films and projectors, scheduling of, in large school, 19
"Findings," 64, 173, 242, 320
Fitchet, George W., on "Money Is Not the Only Objective in Student Council Fund-Raising Activities," 557
Fitzpatrick, William J., on "Organizing Your Classes Through Special Assignments," 356
Flag saluting, analysis of conflicting Supreme Court decisions on, 367
Flashmeters, described, 349

Flaumenhaft, A. S.: on "Are You Clicking on All Clichés?" 332; on "My Father, My Mother—and Me!" 399
Flora, Sister M., on "What Teachers Should Know about Underdeveloped Countries," 93
Flory, Vera, on "Special Classes for the Gifted?" 22
Foreign education: effect of British socialism on England's private secondary schools, 333; the "Eleven-Plus" battle in England, 259; opportunities for American teachers abroad, 266; overview of secondary education in Europe, 323
Foreign relations, objective and activities of Foreign Relations Project of North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, 409
Fowler, Mary Elizabeth, on how "Development of Individuality Poses Problems in a Mass World," 232
Frymier, Jack R., on "To Create Is to Relate," 455
Fulbright program, 266
"Functions of the Junior High," by Clayton E. Buell, 97
Funds, see Student funds
Furness, Edna L.: on "Revolution in Reading Instruction," 72; on "It's Time to Diagnose Spelling Troubles," 390

Gallagher, Eleanore, makes a "Report of a Faculty Meeting," 165
Gallman, Mary, on "Pupils Have Their Problems Too!" 538
Geography, essential that children develop world view through knowledge of underdeveloped countries, 93
Gifted students: justification of special classes for, 22; need creative teachers, 161; outline of school program for the less gifted, 80; tenth-grade class organizes school trip to Washington, 43
Gilpatrick, Naomi, on "Education Is Guidance," 421
Givens, Pauline Welch, on "Who Says Children Are Less Educated Today?" 40
Gordon, George N., on "How Can Teaching Compete with TV?" 263
Gordon, Ted, editor of "Tricks of the Trade," 96, 147, 222, 338, 418, 477
Gorlin, Deborah E. (coauthor), on "Why Interest Testing?" 37
Grades, how to achieve A's and B's with minimum of worry, 541
Grading papers, advantages of intermittent grading, 451
Grammar, is correct English worth the price? 135
Green, Joseph, editor of "Events and Opinion," 32, 112, 160, 238, 300, 370, 486
Gregory, Emily Betts, on "Poetry as an Arch," 204
Greiner, Charles F., on "We Had Doubts About Mister Roberts," 155
Grobman, Hulda, on "What Counts with Parents?" 295
Group dynamics, value of silent periods, 230
"Group Dynamics in Action," by H. A. Jeep and J. W. Hollis, 223
Group guidance, see Guidance
Groupism, v. individualism, 353
Groups, what should be expected from leaders of, 520
Grover, David H., on "What Teacher Shortage?" 517
Guidance: education is guidance in action, 421; importance of interest inventory, 37; value of guidance class for high-school freshmen, 547
"Guidance and Teaching of Twins," by Eleanor Bradley, 364
"Guidance and the Classroom Teacher," by Viona E. Long, 419

Haake, Bernard, on "1987," 277
Hanford, Ellen, on "Plenty of Problems in School Publications," 211
Hay, John, see John Hay fellowships
Hayes, Roy M., on "The Importance of Little Things," 306
"High School and College: Some Problems in Articulation," by Denton L. Cook, 167
High-school, comprehensive, unique American institution, 467 ff.
"High-School Diploma Is Still Being Kicked Around," by Roy C. Bryan, 341
"High-School Principal Looks at Juvenile Delinquency," by Robert Wayne Clark, 89
"High-School Students Can Write: Give Them a Chance," by Hazel Black Davis, 177
"High Schools and Teacher Recruitment," by Frank Nania, 461
Hill, William J., on "Vital Need for Improving Instruction in Foreign Relations," 409
Hobelman, Lucile, on "Three Creative Teachers," 161
Hodgins, Audrey, reviews transcriptions, 58, 124, 252, 314, 380, 442
Hodgins, Frank, reviews transcriptions, 58, 124, 252, 314, 380, 442, 508, 567
Hollis, J. W. (coauthor), on "Group Dynamics in Action," 223
Holt, Howard B., on "Let's Go Visitin'," 415
Home room, desirability of, 457
Homework, of value to college preparatory students, 28
Homogeneous grouping, homorthic grouping suggested for pupils who create behavior problems, 133
"Homorthic Grouping—a New Proposal," by J. R. Shannon, 133
Hoover, Kenneth H., on "Stereotyped Reactions of Teachers," 239
Horst, J. M., on use of pupils as teachers, 162
Hosmanek, John J. (coauthor), on "Atypical Attitudes in Typical Schools," 181
Houck, Robert (coauthor), on "Teacher Responsibility for Student Funds," 179
"How Can Teaching Compete with TV?" by George N. Gordon, 263
"How Is Your Smile?" by Jackie Mallis, 33
"How to Make High Grades," by Edwin Maxwell Bridges, 541
Huettner, Otto F. (coauthor), on "Atypical Attitudes in Typical Schools," 181
Hughes, D. Patrick, on "The Silent Period in Group Processes," 230
"Humanities Today," 53, 119, 187, 249, 312, 377, 441, 505, 564
Hummel, Errett (coauthor), on "Teacher Responsibility for Student Funds," 179
Huntley-Brinkley report, evaluation of, 312

"I Finally Found a Job but—," by Andrew G. Jaros, 518
"I Teach Children," by William Plutte, 131
"If I Could Change My I.Q.," by Albert M. Lerch, 174
"Importance of Little Things," by Roy M. Hayes, 306
"Improving Reading in Butte County High Schools," by Loaz W. Johnson, 207

In-service training of teachers, via visitation program, 415
Individualism: hard to resist pressures toward conformity today, 232; v. groupism, 353
Inglis, Alexander, enunciated four fallacies in popular thinking, 475
Integration, circle stretchers create new incentives for Negro pupils, 466
Interest inventory, valuable addition to testing program, 37
"Intermittent Grading," by Ogden R. Lindsley, 451
International education, see Foreign Education
Investments: advantages of investment clubs, 35; common stocks a wise choice for teachers, 34
I.Q.: students at Northampton Area Joint High School tell what I.Q. they would like to have, 174; teachers need training in interpreting intelligence tests, 283
Irwin, Forrest, book review editor, 47, 113, 185, 245, 308, 371, 435, 500, 559
"Is Correct English Worth the Price?" by Carl G. Miller, 135
"Is Homework Valuable?" by Sister M. Theophane, 28
"Is There a Conflict Between Discipline and Democracy?" by Richard H. Clark, 7
"Ish, Icky, and Cool Cat," by Robert L. Coard, 214
"It Pays to Advertise the Student Council," by Gerald M. Van Pool, 218
"It's Time to Diagnose Spelling Troubles," by Edna Lue Furness, 390
"Ivory Podium, the," by June Diemer, 144

Jaros, Andrew G., on "I Finally Found a Job but—," 518
Jeep, H. A. (coauthor), on "Group Dynamics in Action," 223
John Hay fellowships, available for secondary-school teachers, 86
Johnson, Loaz W., on "Improving Reading in Butte County High Schools," 207
Jones, James J., on "Teacher Morale and Administration," 291
Josephina, Sister, on "Spelling: the Responsibility of Every Teacher," 393
Journalism, student, thrives on problems, 211
Junior high schools, have distinct functions in meeting needs of early adolescents, 97
"Just Between You and I," poem, by Jacob C. Solovay, 3
"Justice Via the Student Court," by Charles A. Tonsor, 105
Juvenile delinquency, adult community at fault in not enforcing standards, 89

Kalmbach, R. Lynn, on "The Alternate-Day School," 495
Karlin, Robert, on "Machines and Reading," 349
Kaufman, John F. (coauthor), on "Block-Time or Core Practices in Minnesota Secondary Schools," 532
Kiley, Frederick S., on "A Barrage of Slings and Arrows," 284
Kleinhenz, Francis A., on "A Defense of the Less Gifted," 80
Krueger, Albert H. (coauthor), on "Evaluating the Curriculum," 480

Langan, Gregory (coauthor), on "Evaluating the Curriculum," 480
Language arts: program planned co-operatively at Plainfield High School, 148; six-article symposium on, 202 ff.
Lare, Everett B., editor of "Audio-Visual News," 61, 125, 191, 254, 319, 382, 447, 511, 568
Lawson, Elizabeth K. (coauthor), on "New Teachers Tell Their Story," 492
Lazes, Alex H., on "Salute to Youth," 528
"Leadership in Group Work," by Amedeo Sferra, 520
Leet, Pauline M., explication of her poem, "Ah How My Cat Benjamin," 55
Lerch, Albert M., on "If I Could Change My I.Q.," 174
"Let's Go Visitin'," by Howard B. Holt, 415
"Letter to My Pupils," by Carlos de Zafra, Jr., 6
Letters of application: not always carefully processed by school administrators, 517; when applying for jobs, teachers often write poor letters, 140
"Letters to the Editor," 354, 499
Lieberman, Leo, on "An Approach to Poetry Writing," 355
"Life, Literature, and the Pursuit of Hamburgers," by Don H. Otto, 281
Lindsley, Ogden R., on "Intermittent Grading," 451
Literature, light touch awakens teen-age interest in, 281
Logan, Edgar, on the John Hay fellowship program, 86
Logical reasoning, use of indirect method, 478
Long, Viona E., on "Guidance and the Classroom Teacher," 419

"Machines and Reading," by Robert Karlin, 349
McLeod, Maria, asks "Are Interschool Athletics Getting Out of Hand?" 484
Mallis, Jackie, on "How Is Your Smile?" 33
Maloney, Henry B., associate editor of "The Humanities Today," 53, 119, 187, 249, 312, 377, 441, 505, 564
Marking, advantages of intermittent grading, 451
Maryland University overseas program, 271
Mathematics, laboratory required for successful teaching of, 77
"Maugham in the Classroom," by Philip Eisman, 25
"Measuring Reading Comprehension," by Walter B. Barbe, 343
Merit pay plan: arguments against, 17; arguments for, 339
"Merit Salary Schedule," by Dugald S. Arbuckle, 395
Mersand, Joseph, on "Using Uniform Lessons in English at the Opening of a New Term," 404
Miller, Carl G., on "Is Correct English Worth the Price?" 135
Minnesota, status of core curriculums in schools of, 532
Mister Roberts, successfully staged by high-school seniors, 155
"Modern Art and the Modern School," by Van Cleve Morris and I. L. de Francesco, 67
Mones, Leon, on "The Teacher of Poetry," 360
Money, see Student funds
"Money Is Not the Only Objective in Student Council Fund-Raising Activities," by George W. Fitchet, 557
Montague, Joel B., Jr.: on "The 'Eleven-Plus' Battle in Education in England," 259; on the effect of British socialism on England's private secondary schools, 333

Moon and Sixpence, literary unit on Maugham's novel, 25
Morale of teachers: factors affecting, 291; not necessarily enhanced by participation in staff recruitment, 301
Morris, Van Cleve (coauthor), on "Modern Art and the Modern School," 67
Morrow, Ann Ess, on "Teacher in a-Musing Mood," 75
Mothers, tend to pamper their sons, 399
"Mr. Belmock—You Washed the Wrong Hog," by M. B. Smith, 339
"Mr. Superintendent, I Want a Position as—," by John B. Crossley, 140
Music, can do much for children, 244
Mutual funds, safe investment for teachers, 34
"My Father, My Mother—and Me!" by A. S. Flaumenhaft, 399

Nania, Frank, on "High Schools and Teacher Recruitment," 461
"New Teachers Tell Their Story," by Elizabeth K. Lawson and Emma Reinhardt, 492
New York City, how teen-agers are serving their community, 528
"1987," by Bernard Haake, 277
Nissman, Albert, on "Split-Group Technique," 279

O'Connor, Marie E., on "The Reluctant Learner and the Radio Workshop," 549
O'Connor, William F., on "We Need Fathers Too!" 402
Ohles, John F., on "Education as a Profession," 108
Oines, Ole, on "Scheduling Films and Projectors," 19
Oliva, Peter F., on international teaching opportunities for Americans, 266
"1987," by Bernard Haake, 277
"Order in the Corridor," by John Cecil Wright, 422
Otto, Don H., on "Life, Literature, and the Pursuit of Hamburgers," 281

Pacers, described, 349
Palmer, R. Roderick, on "Straight and Crooked Thinking," 542
"Paperbacks for Slow Learners," by David Zamchick, 289
Parents: analyzed by their children, 399; can learn from their children, 137; tell what they like and dislike about their children's schools, 295
Patterson, Emma L., pens "Valedictory of a Retiring Teacher," 336
Pitkanen, Allan M., on "Diagnostic Instruction in Remedial Reading Classes," 487
Platt, Myles M., associate editor of "The Humanities Today," 53, 119, 187, 249
Pleasants, Samuel A.: on "Can You Legally Compel Pupils to Pledge Allegiance?" 367; on "Education for the Free Mind," 472
"Plenty of Problems in School Publications," by Ellen Hanford, 211
Ploghoft, Milton E., on "Teacher Participation in Selecting New Personnel," 301
Plutte, William: on "Vertical Educational Planning," 4; on "I Teach Children," 131
"Poems for Teaching": "Ah How My Cat Benjamin," by Pauline Leet, 55; "Jack and Jill" verse illustrates how a student may acquire poetic evaluation, 505 ff.; "Reuben Bright" by Edwin Arlington Robinson, 189; "Termites," by Charles G. Bell, 250; "There's a Certain Slant of Light," by Emily Dickinson, 314; "To the Western World," by Louis Simpson, 442; see also Poetry
Poetry: definition of, 250, 314; enhances human understanding, 357; how to motivate students to write poetry, 355; teacher of poetry has difficult task, 360; see also "Poems for Teaching"
"Poetry as an Arch," by Emily Betts Gregory, 204
Point IV program, 271
Popper, Samuel H., on "Activity Program at Como Park," 497
"Practice in the Use of Logical Reasoning," by Donald A. Williamson, 478
Principals, high-school, in praise of, 30
Professionalism, see "Education as a Profession"
Przychodzin, Joe, on "Discipline," 411
Public relations, some novel techniques for achieving good will toward schools, 101
Public schools, place too much emphasis on administration, 10
Punke, Harold H., on "Role of Youth in Educating Parents," 137
Pupil-teacher co-operation, 6
Pupil-teacher relations, 75
Pupil teachers, add variety to classrooms, 162
"Pupils Have Their Problems Too!" by Mary Gallman, 538

Radio workshop, served to motivate reluctant learners, 549
Reading: continuous diagnosis and special classes essential for remedial teaching, 487; difficulty of measuring reading comprehension, 343; disabled readers must learn to see whole ideas, 202; effectiveness of split-group technique, 279; evaluation of reading machines, 349; evolution of instruction in, during past century, 72; many factors involved in determining reading expectancy levels, 346; purchase of paperbacks stimulates reading by slow learners, 289; role of social studies teacher in remedial reading, 433; Science Research Associates reading program improves reading skills of high-school students, 208; see also English teaching
"Reading in College," by Derwood Clay, 169
"Re-emphasis on Quality in Education," by Jack Boger, 195
Reid, Ann, asks "Are Special Classes for Slow Learners Worth While?" 553
Reinhardt, Emma (coauthor), on "New Teachers Tell Their Story," 492
"Religion and the Public Schools," by William D. Southworth, 515
"Reluctant Learner and the Radio Workshop," by Marie E. O'Connor, 549
"Remedial Reading and the Social Studies Teacher," by Robert O. Briggs, 433
"Report of a Faculty Meeting," by Eleanore Gallagher, 165
Resnick, Joseph, on "Antisocial Behavior: Whose Fault?" 103
Retarded students: adjusted program needed for exceptional children, 80; benefit from special class grouping, 553; motivated by radio workshop, 549; purchase of paperbacks stimulates reading, 289
Retiring teacher, pens a valedictory, 336
"Reuben Bright," explication of Edwin Arlington Robinson poem, 189
"Revolution in Reading Instruction," by Edna L. Furness, 72
Rigoletto, study guide, 377

Robb, Melvin H., on "The Boy Who Doesn't Belong," 337
Roberts, Andrew D. (coauthor), on "Why Interest Testing?" 37
Robinson, Donald W., on "How Large a Class?" 460
Robinson, Edwin Arlington, explication of his poem, "Reuben Bright," 189
Robison, Charles A., on "A Different Kind of Summer School," 552
Roche, William D., on "What About Guidance Classes?" 547
"Role of Youth in Educating Parents," by Harold H. Punke, 137
Royster, Salibelle, on "TV, Handmaid of Literature," 216
Rugby (school), can it continue to be a social class school? 333
"Rugged Groupism," editorial, by Clayton E. Buell, 353
Russian education: emphasizes science training, 470 ff.; not adaptable for U.S., 468, 472

Salaries: arguments against merit pay plan, 17; arguments in favor of merit pay plan, 339; merit salary schedule detailed, 395
"Salute to Youth," by Alex H. Lazes, 528
Sammartino, Peter, suggests ways of meeting educational challenge posed by Russian Sputnik, 407
Sandburg, Carl, nonconformist, 505
"Sarcastic Language," by John H. Treanor, 465
Savings, teachers should invest in quality common stocks, 34
"Savings and Investments," by Peter Yacyk, 287
Scarangello, Anthony, on "Europe's Schools," 323
"Scheduling Films and Projectors," by Ole Oines, 19
Schmidtchen, Paul W., on "Education Toward What?" 235
School buildings, vertical underground construction suggested as solution to costly sites, 4
School publications, cannot be regimented, 211
School tour, tenth-grade class of gifted students plans trip to Washington, 43
Schools, merits of alternate-day sessions, 495
Schubert, Delwyn G., on "Who Needs Help in Reading?" 346
Schulte, Faith, offers "Tips to a New Art Teacher," 398
Science: fear of math failure deters enrollment in, 77; focal point for Russian education, 470 ff.; must not be allowed to overshadow humanities in curriculums, 195
Science Research Associates, have developed reading program for use in high schools, 208
Scott, Marjorie, on "What Is a High-School Principal?" 30
Scott, S. T., on "Circle Stretchers Create New Incentives," 466
"Semantics Approach to Teaching High-School English," by Virginia Durham, 273
Sferra, Amedeo, on "Leadership in Group Work," 520
Shakespearean plays, contretemps in school productions of, 284
"Shall We Junk the Home Room?" by Marjorie Cupp, 457
Shannon, J. R.: on "Edgar Beaver Looks at Sunday School," 10; on "Homorthic Grouping—a New Proposal," 133; on "Sputnik and Inglis' Four Fallacies," 474
Sharp, Selby, on "Automobiles and Pupil Adjustment," 83
Shattuck, George E., on "Sputnik Is Good If," 467
"Silent Period in Group Processes," by D. Patrick Hughes, 230
Simpson, Louis, explication of his poem, "To the Western World," 442
Slang, can be profitable unit in English class, 214
Sloat, Elizabeth S., on "The Role of the School Annual Today," 359
Slow learners, see Retarded students
Smile, an asset for teachers, 33
Smith, M. B., argues in favor of merit pay plan, 339
Smith-Mundt program, 267
"So You Want to Teach Abroad?" by Peter F. Oliva, 266
Social studies teacher, should carry on remedial reading instruction, 433
Solovay, Jacob C., poems, "Bedtime Story," 154; "Just Between You and I," 3; "T'Ain't No Taint," 366
"Some Pros and Cons of CCTV," by Carlos de Zafra, Jr., 152
Southworth, William D., on "Religion and the Public Schools," 515
"Special Classes for the Gifted?" by Vera Flory, 22
Spelling, value of diagnosing causes of difficulties in, 390
"Spelling: the Responsibility of Every Teacher," by Sister Josephina, 393
"Split-Group Technique" by Albert Nissman, 279
Sputnik, how U.S. schools and colleges can meet Russian challenge in education, 407
"Sputnik and Inglis' Four Fallacies," by J. R. Shannon, 474
"Sputnik Is Good If," by George E. Shattuck, 467
Steeves, Frank L., on "Student Teaching Is Essential," 430
"Stereotyped Reactions of Teachers," by Kenneth H. Hoover, 239
Stern, Milton R., on "Poems for Teaching," 56, 190, 251, 315, 445, 507
"Stock Talk for Teachers," by Howard E. Capeling, 34
"Straight and Crooked Thinking," by R. Roderick Palmer, 542
Student councils: fund-raising activities provide good learning situations, 557; need publicity, 218
Student courts, guideposts for student judges, 105
Student funds, lack of consistent policies for handling of, 179
Student interest activity program, at Como Park Junior High School, 497
Student teaching, period should be extended, 519
"Student Teaching Is Essential," by Frank L. Steeves, 430
"Students Vote on Student Dress," by George E. Arnstein, 387
Summer school, should be made available by the state without charge for high-school students who wish to study in summer, 552
Sunday schools, public schools could emulate many features of, 10
Superintendents of schools: criticized for poor handling of letters of application, 517; decry poor letters of inquiry from teacher applicants, 140; responsible for teacher morale, 291
Supervisors, what beginning teachers expect from them, 163

Tachistoscopes, described, 349
"T'Ain't No Taint," poem, by Jacob C. Solovay, 366
Tale of Two Cities, study guide, 441
Tallman, Marion L., on "Washington—or Burst," 43
"Teach Math in the Laboratory," by O. R. Barkdoll, 77
"Teacher in a-Musing Mood," by Ann Ess Morrow, 75
"Teacher Morale and Administration," by James J. Jones, 291
"Teacher of Poetry, the," by Leon Mones, 360
"Teacher Participation in Selecting New Personnel," by Milton E. Ploghoft, 301
Teacher-pupil co-operation, 6
Teacher recruitment: administrators do poor job with mail applications, 517; how best to interest high-school students in the teaching profession, 13, 461; should be an administrative, not a faculty, responsibility, 301
"Teacher Responsibility for Student Funds," by Errett Hummel and Robert Houck, 179
Teachers: beginning teacher must establish control of class, 306; beginning teachers often fail because too idealistic and inexperienced, 519; criticized for their letters of application, 140; gifted children need creative teachers, 161; guideposts to professional status for, 108; new teachers give attitudes on orientation programs, 492; teaching of children v. teaching of subjects, 131; what a beginning teacher should expect from her supervisor, 163; see also Student teaching; Teacher recruitment
Teen-agers, reveal personal problems in English themes, 538
Television: pros and cons of closed-circuit educational TV, 152; teachers need not compete with TV, 263
"Termites," explication of Charles G. Bell poem, 250
Testing: importance of new interest inventory, 37; teachers need training in test interpretation, 283
Theophane, Sister M., on "Is Homework Valuable?" 28
"There's a Certain Slant of Light," explication of Emily Dickinson poem, 314
Thinking, ways of developing pupil's ability to think for himself, 542
"Three Creative Teachers," by Lucile Hobelman, 161
"3 + 3 + 3 Plan," by K. E. Walker, 201
"To Create Is to Relate," by Jack R. Frymier, 455
"To the Western World," explication of Louis Simpson poem, 442
Tompkins, Ellsworth, on "Writing for Publication in The Clearing House, 531
Tonsor, Charles A., on "Justice Via the Student Court," 105
"Traditional Subjects," by Philip S. Blumberg, 293
Traffic-control squad, improves order in school corridors, 422
"Transcriptions": American Heritage, America Speaks, 56; Bay State Ballads, 124; Elias Lieberman, 507; An Evening of Elizabethan Verse and Its Music, 58; French Children's Songs for Teaching French, 379; Frontier Ballads, 313; Great Poems of the English Language, 379; Inferno, 252; A Lincoln Album, 567; The Merchant of Venice, 507; No Single Thing Abides, 313; Nueva York, 379; O' Canada, 57; Poetry of Tennyson, 441; A Round of Poems, 124; Sixteen Sonnets of William Shakespeare, 58; Sounds of Carnival, 442; Sounds of the American Southwest, 567; Talking Dust Bowl, 508; "Veep": Alben W. Barkley Tells His Own Story, 567
Traylor, Everett V., on "The Case for the Ballplayer," 88
Treanor, John H.: on "How About Dress," 241; on "The Custodian," 465; on "Sarcastic Language," 465
"Tricks of the Trade," 96, 147, 222, 338, 418, 477
Truman, Harry, TV interview on "See It Now" rates as program of the year, 564
"TV and Newer Media": Annie Get Your Gun, study guide, 187; courses on "television viewing" are superfluous, 377; excellence of "Biography in Sound" radio program, 119; Huntley-Brinkley report, evaluated, 312; purpose of the American Council for Better Broadcasts, 54; Rigoletto, study guide, 377; Sandburg telecast, 505; screen writers receiving more prominence, 120; Tale of Two Cities, study guide, 441; teacher as TV critic, 53; Truman interview "program of the year," 564; Twelfth Night, study guide, 249
"TV, Handmaid of Literature," by Salibelle Royster, 216
Twelfth Night, study guide, 249
Twins, guidance and teaching of, 364

Underdeveloped countries, teachers must broaden students' outlook by imparting knowledge of, 93
UNESCO, offers educators opportunities to teach overseas, 271
United States Information Agency, binational centers program described, 270
United States Supreme Court, flag-saluting decisions analyzed, 367
"Unreader, the," by Mildred Gignoux Downes, 202
"Using Uniform Lessons in English at the Opening of New Term," by Joseph Mersand, 404

"Valedictory of a Retiring Teacher," by Emma L. Patterson, 336
Van Pool, Gerald M., on "It Pays to Advertise the Student Council," 218
"Vertical Educational Planning," by William Plutte, 4
Visitation program, form of in-service teacher training, 415
Visual aids, see Audio-visual equipment
"Vital Need for Improving Instruction in Foreign Relations," by William J. Hill, 409

Walker, K. E., on "The 3 + 3 + 3 Plan," 201
"Washington—or Burst," by Marion L. Tallman, 43
"We Had Doubts About Mister Roberts," by Charles F. Greiner, 155
"We Need Fathers Too!" by William F. O'Connor, 402
"What About Guidance Classes?" by William D. Roche, 547
"What Counts with Parents?" by Hulda Grobman, 295
"What Good Are Conventions?" by Sister Mary Xavier, 427
"What Is a High-School Principal?" by Marjorie Scott, 30
"What Is the Use of Poetry?" by Allan G. Burt, 357
"What Should Teachers Know About Underdeveloped Countries?" by Sister M. Flora, 93
"What Teacher Shortage?" by David H. Grover, 517

"Who Needs Help in Reading?" by Delwyn G. Schubert, 346
"Who Says Children Are Less Educated Today?" by Pauline Welch Givens, 40
"Why Interest Testing?" by Andrew D. Roberts and Deborah E. Gorlin, 37
"Why Teachers Fear Merit Rating," by Jay Belmock, 17; rebuttal, 339
Williams, Chester S., on "Cancer Education in the Classroom," 525
Williamson, Donald A., on "Practice in the Use of Logical Reasoning," 478
Worries, revealed by students in English themes, 538
"Would You Be Interested in a Year of Study on Full Pay?" by Edgar Logan, 86
Wright, John Cecil, on "Order in the Corridor," 422
Writing: can help students release emotions, 253; students respond well to thought-provoking exam questions, 177
"Writing for Real," by Walter T. Cahill, 304

Xavier, Sister Mary, on "What Good Are Conventions?" 427

Yacyk, Peter, on "Savings & Investments," 287
Year-round schools, 201
Yearbooks, have public-relations possibilities for schools, 359

Zamchick, David, on "Paperbacks for Slow Learners," 289